Pubs that tell the splendour of Art Nouveau and Art Deco

Sunday 29 March 2020 at 3 p.m.

Our imposing administrative buildings and bourgeois houses often reflect the main architectural trends that prevailed at the time of their construction. However, public houses also tell us in their own way about the history of the city and the changing tastes and social habits. Brussels pubs are a testament to the architectural innovations of Art

Nouveau and Art Deco. The stained-glass windows, elegant curved woodwork, precious fabrics, mirrors and shining counters still bear witness to the Belle Epoque, the Roaring Twenties & Jazzy Thirties.

Our walk through the town will take us from the well-lit, big & noisy brasseries of the turn of the century to the more discreet, cosy and intimate bars of the interwar period.

Meeting time and place: 2.45 p.m. on the steps of the old Brussels Stock Exchange, Place de la Bourse at 1000 Bruxelles.
