

Think out of the box!

Visit the contemporary Vanhaerents art collection and meet the Art Collector in person.

Saturday 24 September 2022, 3 PM

Rue Anneessens 29, 1000 Brussels

The Vanhaerents Art Collection is a unique and comprehensive collection of contemporary art, assembled by Walter Vanhaerents and his children Els and Joost. It enjoys the individual approach to collecting of its founders, as well as their shared passion for new and provocative art.

Joost himself will guide the participants of the carrefour européen all along the three-floor industrial and former sanitary warehouse converted into a wonderful art exhibition building, in the heart of the Dansaert district in Brussels. Iconic works from Ai Weiwei or Bruce Nauman but also from emerging artists, some of whom have never been exhibited in Belgium before, are waiting for you.

The visit will be in English but you can ask your questions in French or in Dutch as well.

As the past 2 years were definitely extra - ordinary, the viewing of the collection will also be extraordinary, with some art pieces still in their transportation and storage boxes. So be prepared to a new experience and welcome modern art transposing concerns of our times!

An optional drink is organised at the end of the visit if you want to prolong the afternoon.

Duration of the visit : 1h30 to 2h00

Meeting point: at 14:45 in front of the entrance Rue Anneessens 29, 1000 Brussels.

A drink will be organised close to the premises afterwards.

Price

- for member: 18,00 € (23 ,00€ with 1 drink included)
- for non-member: 19,00 € (24 ,00€ with 1 drink included)
